September, 1951, brought, as every fall does, the start of a new school year. This meant, of course, a new kindergarten class, the future class of 1964. It is easy to look back and see ourselves on that first day of school, so proud of our new clothes and books as we shyly entered our first classroom. That classroom soon faded into an unending number of classrooms and in the fall of 1961 we entered the high school. That step in our progression was rather significant in that we became the first class to attend all three years in the new building.

Now we are seniors and we have come a long way since that first day. Over the years classmates have come from around the world, while others have gone. Friendships have been made, some to be forgotten, some to last a lifetime. Books have been opened and closed, papers written and thrown away, and we have been in and out of many classrooms. We have learned from our many teachers, and they have learned from us. The environments of our schools have helped each one of us to shape our personalities and will have a great bearing on that part of our lives which yet lies ahead of us.

And so, Graduation Day is here and it is time for us to say good-bye. We will close the doors behind us, never to return to our high school days. We will leave the crowded halls, the classrooms, the books, and the teachers who have so much marked our lives. Scrapbooks will be filled, there will be no more basketball or football games for "our" team, and the class parties, the dances, and the banquets and proms will be gone forever.

We are leaving, and we are all leaving in different directions. We will go on to college, go to work, or get married. In ten years we will be young men and women, having gone our ways, some to be leaders, some to be followers of our country. We will be engineers and scientists, businessmen and secretaries, husbands and wives. But we will find time now and then to look back and reminisce of the days when we were young. The days of high school will be gone forever, but their cherished memories will always be ours to keep.

Motto : The past forever gone;
the future still our own.

Colors : Emerald green and white

Flower: White rose

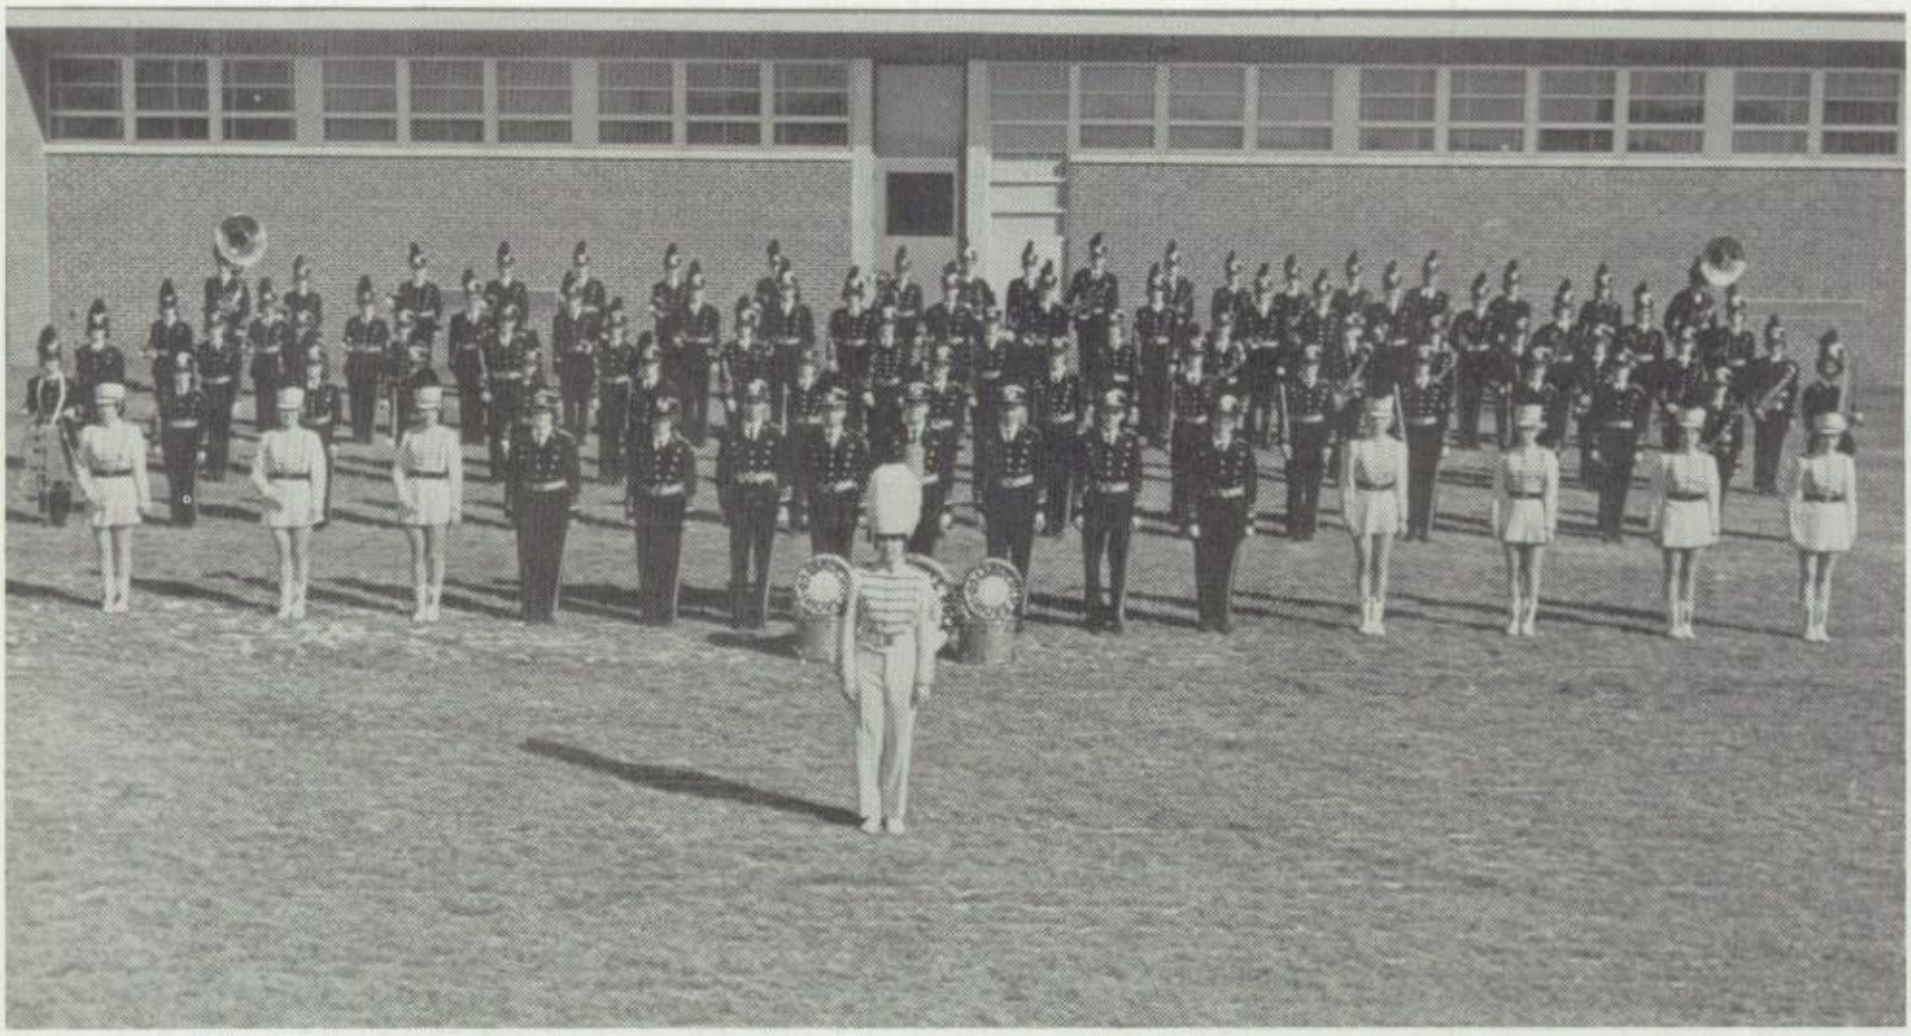
Some of the public performances made by Concert Band this year were at both community and school Christmas programs, at a children's concert, and at the Tall Corn Music Festival. Members of the band also performed as a smaller band at basketball games, pep assemblies, and Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises. The entire group concluded this year's activities by appearing at the spring music contest where they received a division I rating.

President, J. Sale; Vice-President, K. Hein; Secretary, J. Owens; Treasurer; J. Sinnott.



MARCHING BAND

The W-SR Marching Band performs primarily during the fall season. During the past year they participated in half-time activities at several home football games and traveled to Crestwood where they performed at the host school's Homecoming ceremony. The band also takes part in Waverly's Memorial Day and Dairy Day Parades.

Waverly-Shell Rock's 1963 football squad proved to be a tough team to pit against either conference or non-conference foe. Plagued by inexperience, the team placed themselves second in the Northeast Iowa Conference with a 4-1 conference record.

The team started the season by blanking Marion in a non-conference game. The following weekend the gridders went into conference action with a win over New Hampton. The Hawks continued their winning streak by beating Oelwein and Cresco. However, senior quarterback, Jim Kruger, was forced to hand his duties to sophomore, Denny Kettner, because of injuries sustained in the Oelwein game.

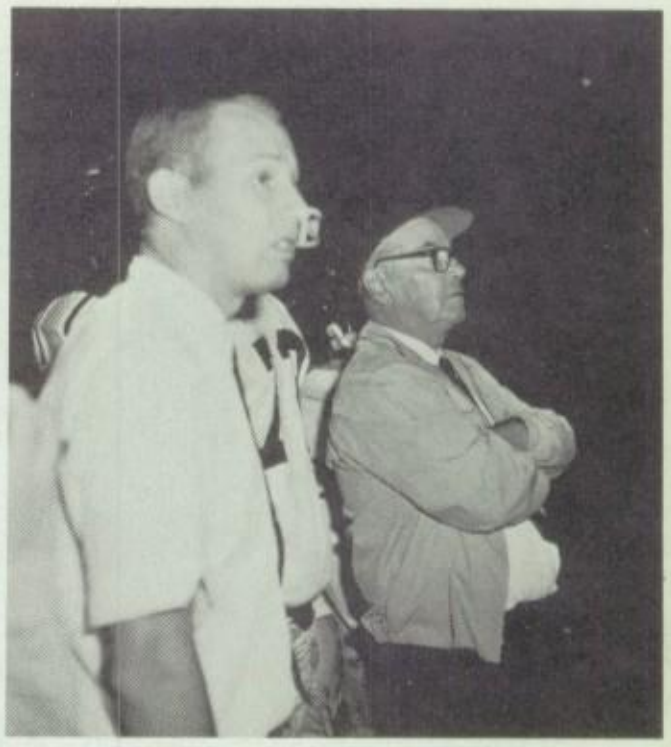
ROW TWO: D. Simpson, G. Savage, J. Monaghan, R. Wright.
ROW THREE: D. Harms, D. Knock, R. Franklin, Coach Matheson.



Coaches Matheson and Brandes

Waverly-Shell Rock lost its Homecoming game to a Decorah team which was rated among the top ten in the state and later was the conference champion. The Go-Hawks suffered their second defeat at the hands of an old rival, Cedar Falls, who was also among the top ten.

Getting into league play again, the Hawks rolled over Charles City. Waverly suffered its first loss ever to Columbus of Waterloo by a one point margin, which marked the close of the season.

The B-squad football team of 1963 had a successful season with a final record of four wins and two losses. The young Hawks opened up the season against Cedar Falls, who handed them a defeat of 26-12. This caused no discouragement as the Sophs took an easy victory over Oelwein, 19-0, only to down New Hampton, 25-0, without much opposition. They continued their success by again defeating Oelwein, 19-12. Going up next against Columbus, their succession of victories was broken by a 19-0 defeat. The season ended as the Hawks downed Charles City for the second time by a score of 36-14. The team was undefeated during the season in conference games and added to the past seasons' records to win nine consecutive and eleven of the past twelve conference games.

For the 1963-64 season the Go-Hawks finished with a 10-10 record. Although the team was beaten in its third district game against Wapsie Valley, it was the conference champ holding a conference record of 8-2.

The first game with Decorah was a virtual massacre--Waverly-Shell Rock having over three times as many points as their opponent. The only two conference losses --those being to Charles City and Cresco--were redeemed later in the season by victories over the same teams. The season reached a zenith near its end with the win over Cresco for the loop crown.

The 1963-64 B-squad basketball team had a very successful season. Their only defeat came in the opening game of the year against the Marshalltown Junior Varsity. In finishing the season with a 16-1 record, they claimed the N.E.I.C. Champion title and brought a promising future for the varsity basketball squad of Waverly-Shell Rock.

Lady Luck was not with the Go-Hawk grapplers this season, even from the very beginning. The Hawks lost the season opener to Charles City with Eggleston scoring a pin and Lee earning a decision to highlight the match for the locals. Wapsie Valley, usually a strong team, was an easy victim for the Hawks. Freshman Roger Lenius handed Wapsie's crack wrestler, Ruben Kreb, a decisive 10-4 decision in that meet. Oelwein also fell victim to the grapplers. Lee pinned his man in 2:58 while Albers, Latwesen, Niemann, Hinds, Klaudt, and Eggleston all scored points to aid in the victory. The Hawks fought a losing battle the rest of the season.

At Charles City, the team took fourth place in the Conference Tournament. Lee, Latwesen, and Eggleston were champs in their weight class. Meinhard placed third and Young and Niemann placed fourth in the individual standings.

In the Class A Sectional Meet at Waverly the Hawks captured first place in the team standings. Meinhard, Lee, Latwesen, and Eggleston were champions in their respective weights which enabled them to advance to the district meet.

Lee and Latwesen fell by the wayside in the district competition leaving Meinhard and Eggleston to advance to the state meet. At the district level both of the boys won in overtime with Meinhard pulling a surprise victory over New Hampton's defending state champ, Kendall Miller. Unfortunately both were beaten early in the state meet.

Steve Lee was elected by the team as most valuable wrestler, most improved wrestler, and team captain.

This year's squad was the largest in Waverly-Shell Rock's history, the year starting with 40 boys on the team. Team captain Rick Eggleston led the Go-Hawks through a mediocre season to end up as the sixteenth in the state. The season ended climactically as Larry Thoms (picture to the left) won the State Athletic Association Championship in the discus throw. He heaved the discus over 153 feet to beat his nearest opponent by over a foot. However, Larry managed to throw farther than that earlier in the season.

The Waverly-Shell Rock baseball team got off to a slow start with a 10-2 trimming by the Denver Cyclones. The team also dropped their second game of the season against East Waterloo. The Go-Hawks finally entered the win column with a very decisive victory over Charles City. That game was highlighted with home runs by Jim Kruger and Bill Harken. West Waterloo won the following game, mainly on our own errors. The team lost again to East Waterloo but this time only by a one point margin.

In the first round of sectional play Waverly subdued Plainfield in a wild ball game. The win over Plainfield pitted the Go-Hawks against Tripoli, whom they beat 7-4. The game was sparked by Dean William's two-run homer and by Tom Cain's fine pitching job. The team easily rolled over Denver in the sectional finals. The bulk of the scoring was done in the second inning when the Hawks made six runs. The team was stopped in tournament play by West Waterloo in a close ball game.

Greene proved to be a tough opponent for the team too, but not quite tough enough. All of the runs for the team were scored in the sixth inning. However, it went the other way for the final game of the season against Oelwein. It was a "nip and tuck" ball game all the way until the final inning when Oelwein came from behind and scored two runs to win the game.

HOMECOMING '63

Nora Walther, Dennis Niewoehner, Judy Moeller, Roger Traetow, Barbara Bahr, David Harken Janet Freeburg, Jim Luchtenburg.

This year's Homecoming began a number of weeks before the day itself. Eight senior girls were selected by the senior class to be candidates.

The candidates with their escorts, who were chosen by the Pep Club, were presented to the student body before "the big day."

Student Council President, Richard Salge, announced the name of each candidate as she was escorted in front of the students.

The students were then asked to vote for queen, first attendant, and second attendant.

Ruth Schmidt, Tom Morrill, Nancy Droste, Jim Kruger, Kathy Garner, Joel Meyer, Janice Becker, Jerry Sale.

Anticipation and excitement continued to mount as the day of Homecoming neared. W-SR students spent many hours planning for this all-important day.

Cheerleaders took charge of the Pep Rally held the night before Homecoming in the school parking lot. The evening's activities included a short speech by each football player, cheers, several numbers by the W-SR Pep Band, fireworks, and the climax of the evening--the burning of a Decorah Viking in effigy.

Pep Club members under the direction of President, Janet Freeburg, and the Homecoming stage committee worked and planned for many weeks to make Homecoming 1963 the best ever.

October 11 marked "The Day." As friends, relatives and students filled the gymnasium, they viewed the beautiful representation of India's famed Taj Mahal. Under the main dome was the throne where in a short time the queen would be crowned.

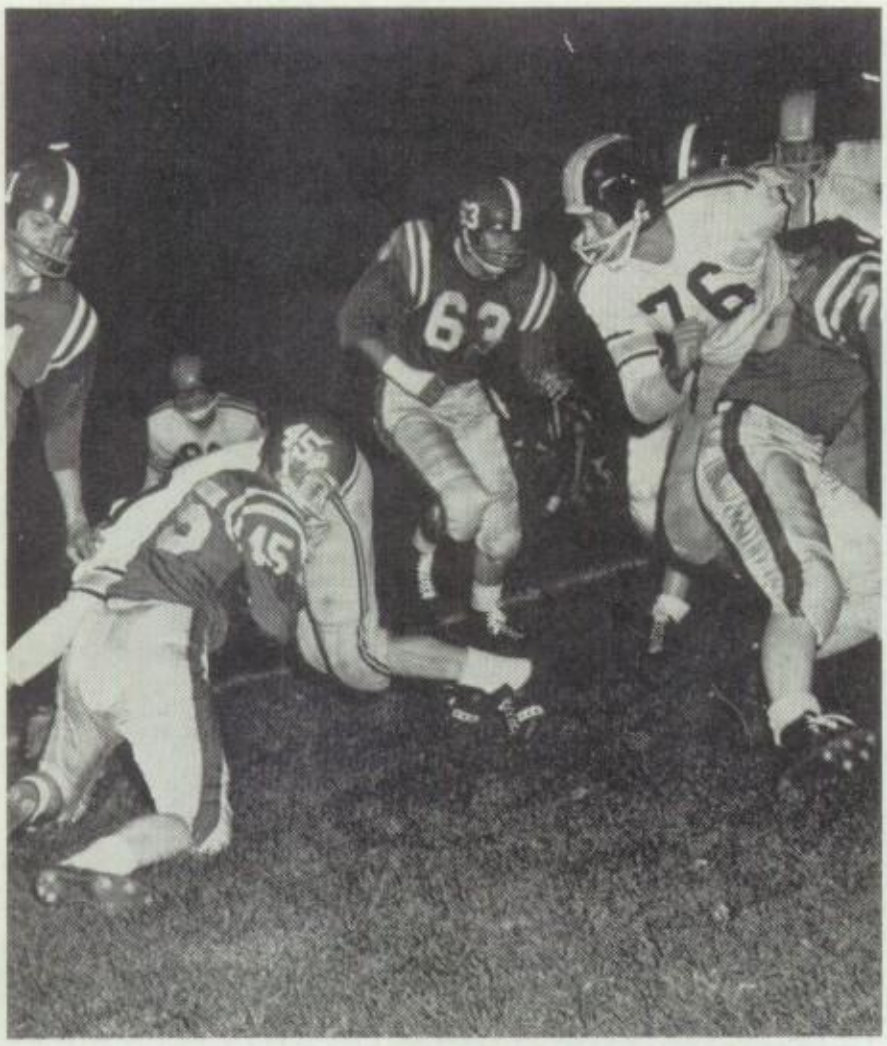
Before the candidates entered the gymnasium, master of ceremonies, Richard Salge, welcomed all those present and introduced Misses Charlotte Lundberg and Diana Hickle. Diana accompanied Charlotte as she sang "I Enjoy Being a Girl."

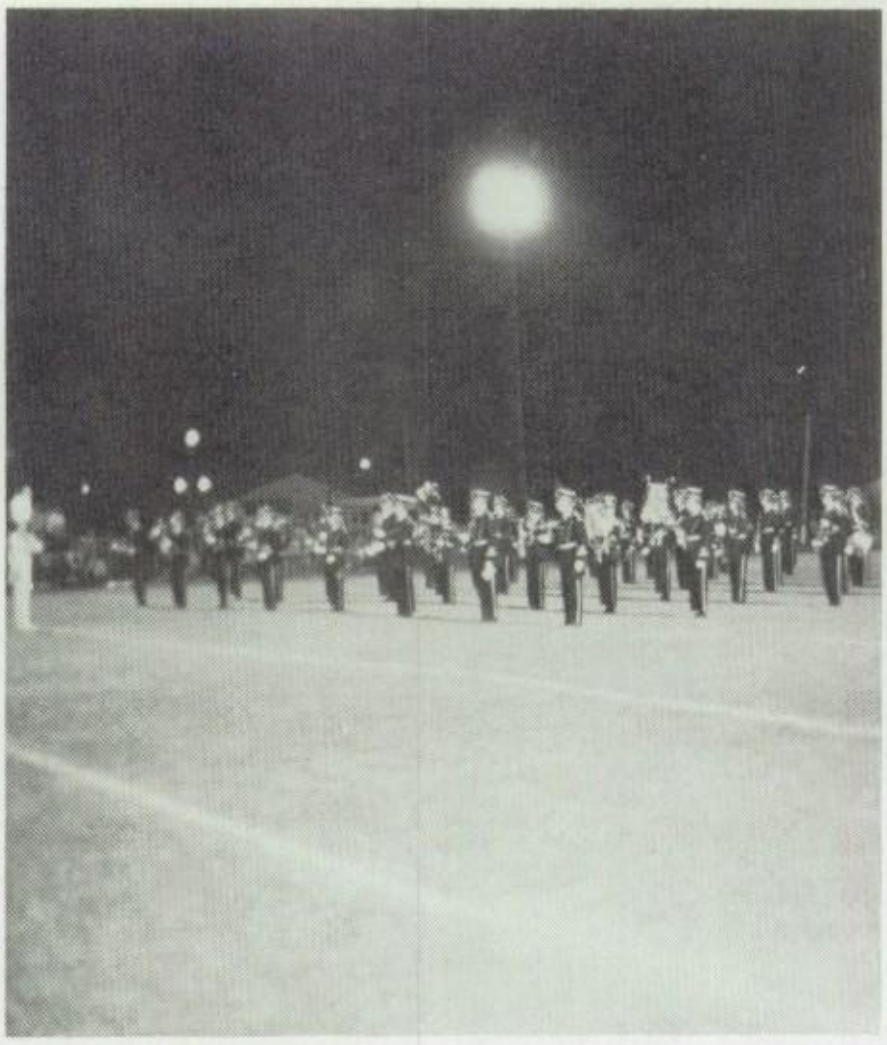
Each of the candidates, wearing an evening dress and carrying a yellow mum, was escorted to her place on the steps as the master of ceremonies introduced each individually.

Applause and cheering arose from the audience as Misses Judy Moeller and Nora Walther were announced as attendants to the 1963 W-SR Homecoming Queen, Miss Ruth Schmidt.

Entertainment for the queen's pleasure was then presented by John Harwood at the piano and Jerry Young at the drums. They played a medley of songs including "Maria," "Misty," "Greenfields," and many other favorites.

Mr. Freeman, senior class sponsor, was the guest speaker for the day.

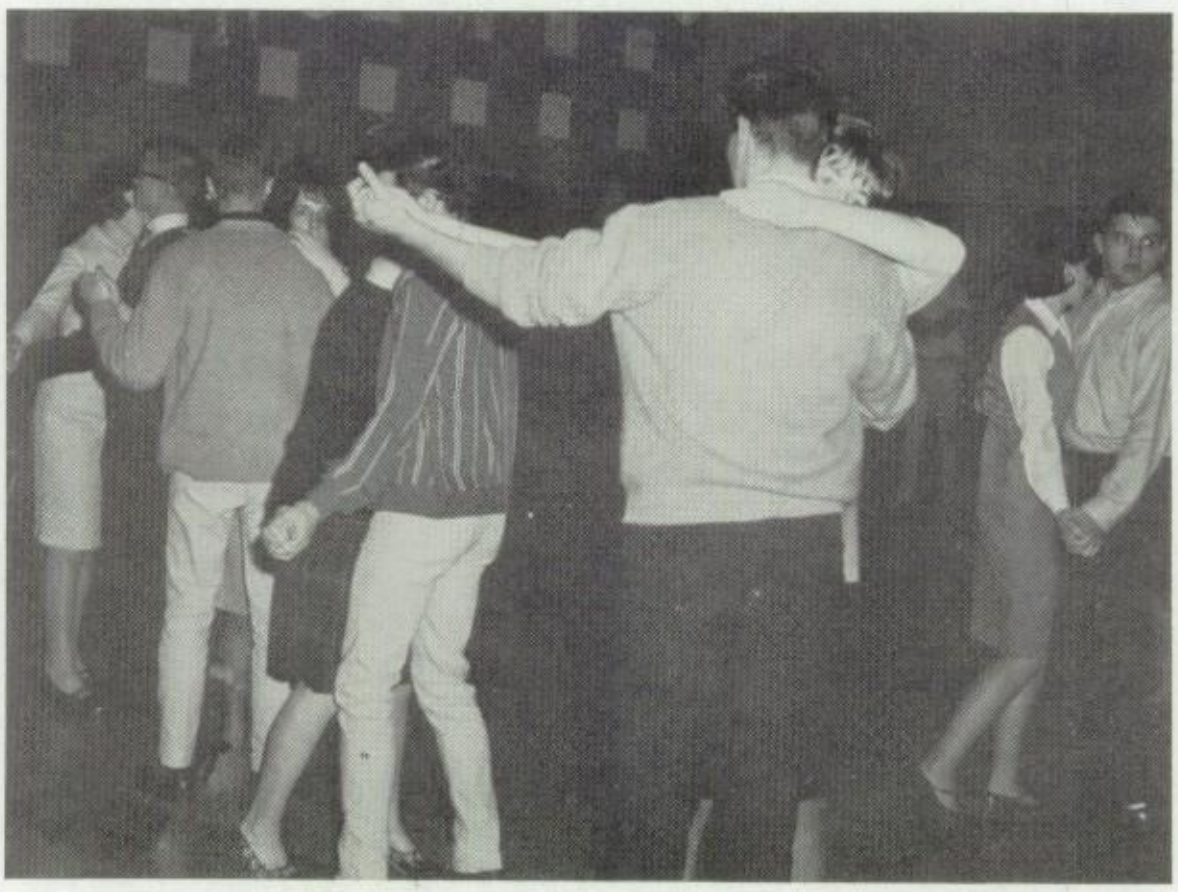




A 14-7 victory for Decorah was, of course, a disappointment for everyone. However, the W-SR Go-Hawks put up a fine showing against the tough Vikings.

Halftime activities at the game included the presentation of the queen and her court. Queen Ruth gave a short speech of gratitude to all those who worked to make Homecoming so wonderful.

The final event of the evening was the annual Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Student Council. Entertainment was provided by two disc jockeys and some live talent from Wartburg College.



HARVEST BALL

QUEEN JO

The annual Harvest Ball, sponsored by the Waverly-Shell Rock FFA Chapter was held on November 2, 1963, from 8 to 11 p. m. in the senior high cafetorium. Ken Cummings was the caller for the square dance. Corn shocks and bales of straw, as well as brightly-colored gourds, pumpkins and other fall garden products set the mood for an evening of fun and enjoyment. A ready supply of apple cider and cookies was kept on hand for the dancers.

Highlights of the evening were the drawing for the turkey and announcement of Harvest Ball Queen. Delbert Simpson was the lucky winner in the turkey drawing.

The following six girls were introduced as the candidates for Harvest Ball Queen: Deanne Reints, Joyce Neiman, Eunice Heine, Joanne Shipman, Barbara DeNeui and Roma Rewerts. These girls were selected by the local FFA Chapter, with the student body voting for their choice a few days prior to the Ball. Tom Dettmer crowned Miss Joanne Shipman 1963 Harvest Ball Queen.

The evening proved to be one of fun and excitement for all who attended.

SPEECH CONTEST

The Iowa High School Speech Association consists of all secondary schools in Iowa. The object of this association is to promote speech training in the secondary schools of Iowa and to arrange annually for a series of state contests to motivate students in fields of speech. W-SR participated in district and state contests. Each person who participated in speech contest spent many weeks in advance preparing his selection for contest. These 18 students attended district contest, held February 21 and 22, with twelve persons advancing to state contest at Charles City on March 20 and 21.

MASQUERS

The Masquers organization is designed to assist and supplement the dramatics program. It is the members of this group who are responsible for much of the behind-the-scenes work which makes any play a success. Many Masquers' members also participate in public speaking, interpretive speaking and reading, and similar activities.

SEATED: K. Garner, K. Hein, Miss Jensen, A. Wallis, B. Miller. STANDING: C. Vriezelaar, R. Sturdevant, L. Sherman, B. Reiter, K. Brown, N. Walther, R. Iserman, B. Williams.

THESPIANS

Thespians is an honorary organization for those students outstanding in the field of dramatics. To qualify for membership in this group students must be a Masquers' member and must meet certain requirements established by the constitution. The organization's goal is to improve the interest and quality of dramatics in the school.

GO-HAWK EYE

The Go-Hawk Eye appears weekly in a secion of the Waverly Independent and Democrat. The Staff, under the guidance of faculty advisers, put forth much effort in publishing a paper with the latest school news. Assignments are issued by the editor each week to reporters who, in turn, collect the desired information from the best available sources. After a story is compiled, it is proofread, typed, proofread again and submitted to the editor for publication.

SECOND YEAR MEMBERS

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll honors those students who have shown top performance in the field of journalism. Since this organization is of international character, membership qualifications are set at a high level. Members are chosen by journalism sponsors from students who have worked on staffs of literary publications.

TALE FEATHERS

Tale Feathers is an annual publication containing poetry, essays, themes, and short stories written by members of the student body. This publication affords students the chance to show their talent and ability in the writing field. The literary selections are collected and published by student editors and sold in the spring.

SEATED: Editor-in-Chief, A. Hoyt; Assistant Editor, B. Reiter. STANDING: Associate Editors, D. Jung, E. Brooks, J. Koopman, K. Fredrick.

THE KEY

Whenever it is necessary for a student to quickly locate the telephone number, full name or address of any fellow student, teacher, administrator, member of the school board, or other workers in the school, he reaches for the student directory, THE KEY. This booklet also contains the names of the cheerleaders, coaches, clubs, and the clubs' officers.

If you would have looked in on the editors, you would have seen them, heads bent, proofreading, while the secretarial class had their fingers flying over the keys in order to meet the deadline so the finished product could go on sale.

One of the most challenging projects taken on by the students is the production of the school annual, the Go-Hawk. This project represents a great deal of time spent in planning layout, taking pictures, and drawing mats for publication. It also provides an interesting experience in combining the students' efforts to raise the necessary funds to pay for the project. Staff membership is limited to juniors and seniors.

SWING

Ellen Leslie was the guest soloist for the 1963 "Downbeat" Swing Show. Participating in this musical show were the swing chorus and band, Girls' Glee, Boys' Glee, and a dance line. The entertainers performed before a striking setting of bold yellow and black strips that glistened as the lights shown on them.

SHOW

Two performances were given on November 7 and 8, both being successful as the result of much preparation. The chorus line, which was newly organized by Mrs. Norm Johanson, presented two routines complete with costumes characteristic of the mood in the music that they analyzed.

HOMEMAKING CLUB

Homemaking Club is an organization open to any girl who has taken a course in Homemaking. The club offers a good opportunity for members to share ideas and to learn together the art of homemaking. At each monthly meeting a guest speaker lectures to the girls on some phase of home economics. A special event of this year's club was a tea for the girls' mothers.

Treasurer, M. Lechtenberg; Secretary, S. Capper; President, M. Thoms. NOT SHOWN: Vice-President, L. Hearn.

HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

Phyllis Arns received the honor of being chosen Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She was selected for this honor when she received the highest score on a homemaking test offered to any senior girl who wished to take it. By being the winner at W-SR, she was eligible for entrance in the state contest.

HOG SHOW

The Future Farmers of America is an organization for boys that are enrolled in vocational agriculture. The W-SR chapter is similar to other future farmer programs throughout the world designed to promote leadership ability of their members. Any member may run for one of the six chapter offices, a committee chairmanship, or may participate in one of the many FFA Contests held each year. The local FFA participates in the National FFA week and annually sponsors the Parent-Son Banquet and the Harvest Ball, for which they choose a queen to reign over the activities.

CHEERLEADERS

The Beatles, To Tell The Twooth, and Marshal Go Hawk were all a part of this year's pep assemblies. The cheerleaders spent many long hours preparing skits to arouse school spirit. For many weeks they limped and ached while learning to do the splits and new cheers. There were also many exciting games and meets between the faculty and the team and the Ice Blue Secret they gave the wrestlers to keep them "cool, calm, and collected" were only a few of the highlights of a busy year for the W-SR cheerleaders.

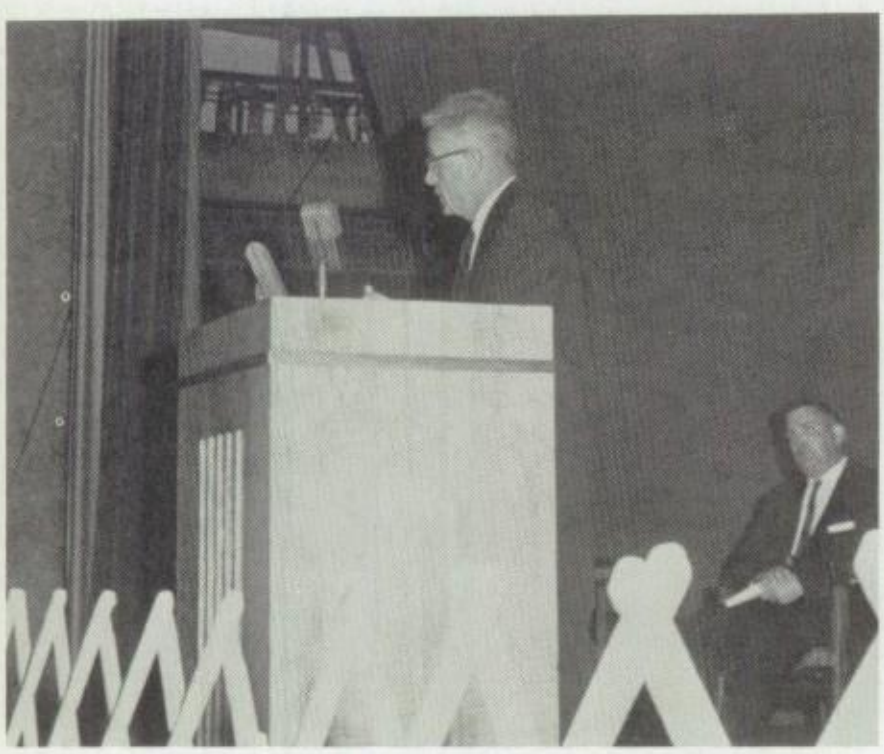
JUNIOR BANQUET

Festivities on the evening of May 8th began at 7:00 p.m. in the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall where the annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held honoring the senior class of 1964. After a dinner of swiss steak, potatoes, corn, and ice cream and cookies for dessert, musical entertainment was provided by members of the junior class. It was indeed a pleasure to be present at such a fine banquet for which hours of planning and preparing were required.

SENIOR AND PROM

"Southern Cotillion" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom held immediately after the Banquet at the high school. Music was provided by the Wayne Marth Quintet. The decorations, among the most lavish ever used in the history of W-SR, included a mural depicting a scene of the "Old South" and extending the full length of the cafetorium wall, a garden setting in one corner of the room, and a showboat constructed by the students. Those in attendance thoroughly enjoyed the genuine southern hospitality displayed by the junior class at "Southern Cotillion."



Reverend Karl Schmidt

BACCALAUREATE

Reverend Karl T. Schmidt, the main speaker for the evening of Baccalaureate, addressed the audience on the topic of "Vocation." The setting for Baccalaureate was Sunday, May 24, 1964, at 8:00 p.m. Miss Charlotte Lundberg, a member of the graduating class, sang one solo number and two numbers were performed by the Girls' Glee.

COMMENCEMENT

W-SR Commencement exercises, held on Thursday, May 28, 1964, in Knights' Gymnasium, marked both the end and the beginning for the graduating seniors. It marked the end of the youthful high school days, and it signified the beginning of a new way of life. The speaker for the evening was Dr. Donald F. Howard who addressed the seniors on "The Long Look." The Mixed Chorus presented two numbers, and Sylvia Wedeking played a clarinet solo. After announcement of the top ten students in the class, Dr. R.E. Shaw conferred diplomas.

It is a long hallway.

How long is it?

Three years long.

Where does it go?

Many places.

To careers, to college,

To work and to marriage.

Where does it go?

It goes to life.
